We offer a wide range of part-time ESOL courses at Melrose Campus. Usually, the day-time classes are 3 hours a week and the evening classes are 2 hours a week.

There is a strong focus on interactive communication in lessons and you are expected to contribute to pair and groupwork in order to complete tasks. You are encouraged to improve your English by taking an active role in the learning process both in the classroom and after lessons.

(Please see/request additional leaflets for full details of the courses listed below.)
